Obituary

Megan Alterese Outlaw, born September 10, 1982 in Bayonne, New Jersey to Betty and Willis Outlaw, Jr.. Megan departed this life on September 8, 2011.

She was raised in Jersey City where she attended and graduated from St. Mary's High School. While attending St. Mary's she devoted her time and served as a mentor in the Peer Ministry Leadership Program. Realizing the importance of education, Megan attended New Jersey City University where she was a senior majoring in Biology and Health Sciences. Megan was employed with the City of Jersey City for over 15 years.

She loved shopping, socializing, travelling and she most enjoyed baking cupcakes for many family events and birthday parties. She had an entrepreneurial spirit and it was her desire to open a Cupcake Bakery.

Megan enjoyed spending time with her God-Daughter, Maddy.

Megan is survived by her parents Betty and Willis Outlaw, Jr.; Sisters Karen, Monique, Sydney, Symone and Demetrius; Brothers John and Kassiem; Brother-In-Laws Cleveland and Selvin; Sister-In-Law Pam; Special Aunt to Deshaan, Diona, Krystal, Kassiem, Jr, Deshard and Brianna; Aunts Billie, Terry, Lynn and Louise and a host of many cousins.

She is the granddaughter of the late Corine and Freddie Gray, Sr. and the late Mary Lue and Willis Outlaw, Sr.

Megan has joined her special nephew Jayvon in Heaven.

Megan also leaves to cherish her memories, special friends, LaVon, Marjorie, Illiana and Jefferson.

Order of Service

Prelude

Processional
Family

Prayer of Comfort
John Miller, Jr.

Solo
Tavares Johnson

Scripture Reading
Old Testament
New Testament

Solo
Rhudy Snelling, Sr.

Acknowledgements & Condolences
Chantel Snow

Reflections

Musical Selection
Carter Singers

Obituary
Chantel Snow

Eulogy
Reverend John Carter

Recessional

Musical Selection
Carolyn Oliver-Fair