Obituary

Mr. Shawn Lamar Miller, loving devoted father of Kailey Jeanette Miller and son of Jeffrey and the late Jeanette Miller, was born on July 11, 1990 in Newark, NJ. He was truly a blessing from that day on.

At the young age of 20, being the provider that Shawn was, he worked at Strike Force Security Company protecting people, which is something that came naturally to him. While working full-time at Strike Force Security, Shawn was furthering his education at Essex County College in Newark NJ, after recently graduating from Shabazz High School with honors.

Shawn was a very influential person who always made himself available to anyone who needed him. Shawn was a person that could always be counted on and could brighten up a cloudy day with his charisma. Shawn was good in nature, he always saw the upside in all situations and never let obstacles get him down. He was our "optimist" in the family.

God took with him an astonishing young man. All the qualities that Shawn held could never be captured in words. Shawn Miller's name alone means great things:

Spontaneous
Humorous
Accomplished
Wise
Nice

Marvelous
Inspiring
Loving Loyal
Encouraging
Responsible

Shawn has now joined God's beautiful garden that is featured behind the Golden Gates and is amongst his grandparents John and Florence Kearney.

Shawn leaves to cherish his memories: his daughter Kailey, his father Jeffrey Miller, his grandmother Barbara Miller, Siblings Khalilah Jeffrey and Glen Miller, Sister in Law Fleacissia Everson, four nieces Samani, Zayanah, Zaniyah and Cassandra, two nephews Jaylin and Justin, two aunts Dorothy and Angelina Kearney, three uncles Allen and Kevin "DJ" Miller and Juan Kearney.

Shawn will also be missed by his devoted best friend Colby Richardson and his companion who he shares his only heir Nyeisha Sledge and a host of other relatives and friends.
